No. # 1600301-2016 AMC

Evelyn Rivera

In Re Evelyn Rivera No. # 16269-2016 AMC

By adversary

Motion/Petition to Consolidate for Appeal to the Chief Judge of the Court;

John J. Lynch adversary Petition and/or otherwise moves to consolidate the above captioned matters for appeal before the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and represents the following:

1. As it is illustrated by the exhibits attached to the Petition to appeal Nunc Pro Tunc the order of the Court was delayed in being delivered into the hands of the appellant,

- 2 The issues as to non discharge ability ring in both matters.
- 3, the issues as to the insurance coverage being accessible to the appellant under Pa. R. C. P. 3159 A (c) ring in both matters
- 4, That by filing a Bankruptcy before this Court the Petitioner opened the door and placed the entire estate including the ~~the~~ issue of the insurance payout, as well as loss of lien priority for lack of that required coverage on the interest of Both the owner, and other interested parties in the estate.
- 5, that the adversary holds judgement for personal injury of a permanent nature to his left eye, caused by the debtors willful conduct in opening a locked door to dangerous, and violent persons, and did bring a violent episode into the adversary Residence as discussed in Petitioners response to motion to dismiss, instead of waiting for the police to arrive.

6. that the 'Estate' must produce the Insurance information so a claim may be processed, and paid or suffer the loss in the amount owed by the judicial lien for the willful conduct that caused the injury as stated.
7. that it is economic and time saving in the consideration of the matter for appeal,

Respectfully
Submitted
